ACTIVITY SEMINAR OF JSPS ACD 2019

This year’s activity seminar was held on October 8, 2019, with the theme “Lesson Study as an interface between didactical research and the teaching profession”. In the morning researchers joined more than 100 Danish teachers for an open mathematics lesson with a Danish grade 5 class, and workshops held by 4 visiting expert teachers from the University of Tsukuba, Japan. The afternoon seminar sported talks and panels by leading researchers in the Didactics of Mathematics.

LAST CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR ORGANISING ACTIVITY SEMINAR 2020 (DEADLINE: OCTOBER 31, 2019)

One of the advantages of being a member of a JSPS Alumni Club is that one can apply for funding to organize an “Activity Seminar” within one’s own scientific field, with one or more invited speakers from Japan and one’s own country. PLEASE CONSIDER APPLYING THIS YEAR as we have so far no applications, and the option may disappear if our small Club does not manage to yield viable proposals every year.
