

JSPS Alumni Club in Denmark

Collaboration and Community Building in Contemporary Art'

Prof Gunhild Borggreen and Prof Yoshitaka Mori

BRIDGE Seminar 2023 - online

20. November
9.00-10.15 CET

Image caption: "Contemporary art work in the garden of Kaneiji temple in Ueno, Tokyo, the site of Relations symposium, October 2022."

Associate Professor Gunhild Borggreen, University of Copenhagen, will begin with a brief overview of network "Collaboration and Community Building in Contemporary Art" and continue with some examples of specific activities during her 2022 BRIDGE fellowship. Professor Mori Yoshitaka from Tokyo University of the Arts will present his research in the field of socially engaged art and the Tokyo Biennale project that he and his institution is involved in, especially the Relations symposium in October 2022.

9.00: Introduction to the event, Prof Leila Lo Leggio, University of Copenhagen and chairperson of JSPS Alumni Club Denmark

9.10: Prof Gunhild Borggreen

9.35: Prof Yoshikata Mori

10.00: Information on JSPS funding and BRIDGE fellowship

JSPS ACD members have already received a link to the event.

Others are welcome to register by sending a mail with subject 'BRIDGE seminar registration' to leila@chem.ku.dk by 19. November